

Understanding Decision Making Training

Understanding Decision Making workshops are important because workers:

- Require understanding of the legal and ethical considerations needed to best support clients whose decision making capacity is being questioned
- Can better support vulnerable people to ensure their rights are being upheld and their choices are protected
- Can make informed professional decisions, better understand roles of interested parties, and safeguard their clients rights and organisation through improved practice.

Understanding Guardianship Workshop Prices

Workshop Length	Number of Participants	Price	Extra Participants
4 hours	up tp 25	$1500 (inc. gst)	$60 per person
6.5 hours	up to 25	$1700 (inc. gst)	$70 per person
2 hours	up to 25	$600 (inc. gst)	$20 per person

*Additional charges apply for workshops outside of Brisbane region. All profits from the workshops supports ADA Australia's work with vulnerable people.

These workshops are offered as in-house training at your organisation.

Workshop options include:

Understanding Decision Making Overview of Supported Decision Making

Comprehensive overview of guardianship administration and Enduring Powers of Attorney. Suitable for workers who support those who may have questionable or impaired decision making capacity.

(4 or 6.5 hours)

Health Decision Making

This workshop aims to provide applied knowledge for participants in the area of health care supported and substitute decision making, particularly when caring for those who have limited capacity or EPOA's in place.

(2 hour)

ADA Law
Community Legal Service

Please contact us for an individually tailored quote to suit your training needs.

Phone: 1800 818 338 or (07) 3637 6000
Email: guardianship@adaaustralia.com.au
Website: www.adalaw.com.au