Understanding Supported Decision Making

Are your staff prepared for Supported Decision Making and/or Guardianship and Administration Matters?

ADA Law Workshops can assist your staff to know more about:

- Supported decision making
- Substitute decision making, particularly for health matters
- Assisting clients when their decision making capacity is impaired or questioned
- Enduring Power of Attorney (EPOA) and Advance Health Directive (AHD) documents, and how they relate to decisions including health decisions
- What to do if decision makers may not be acting in the client's best interests
- Statutory agencies, eg. Office of the Public Guardian, Public Trustee, Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT).

Available Workshops

These workshops are offered as in-house training for your organisation.

Understanding Supported Decision Making

Comprehensive overview of Guardianship Administration and Enduring Powers of Attorney. Suitable for workers who engage with adults who may have questioned or impaired decision making capacity.

(4 or 6.5 hours)

Health Decision Making

This workshop aims to provide applied knowledge for participants in the area of health care supported and substitute decision making, particularly when caring for those who have limited capacity or Enduring Powers of Attorney in place.

(2 hours)

Why is this training important?

Understanding Supported Decision Making workshops are important because workers:

- Require understanding of the legal and ethical considerations needed to best support clients whose decision making capacity is being questioned
- Can better support vulnerable people to ensure their rights are being upheld and their choices are protected
- Can make informed professional decisions, better understand roles of interested parties and safeguard their clients' rights and organisation through improved practice.
